My Fellow Elks,

This letter gets written a little early for May, but I sure hope the snow is gone before you get this newsletter. My golf clubs are crying again to get out. Plus all you fisherman might be drilling holes in the ice yet.

The dues are coming in pretty regular. The lodge is shooting for a 100% this year, I know we can do it. The Raffle Tickets are coming in pretty good also. We cut the price so everyone could afford them. Remember, without your support we cannot last.

Mother's Day is coming, and we are planning our Sunday Brunch. So remember MOM and bring her down.

As soon as the snow is gone we will start having our litter pickups. We try to plan three for the summer. We can use the help. (The more the merrier)

Still got great food every Wed, Thur. and Fri. Like to see everybody down here supporting the Lodge.

We had our spring Roundup in Escanaba on the 20th of April and learned quite a bit so you will be hearing from me. Your Lodge still needs volunteer help on committees and around the Lodge. Don't hesitate to call.

Well that's it for now. See you in July.

Your Exalted Ruler
Barney

RAFFLE PARTY MAY 4th !!!

Lady Elks are collecting donations for Bay Cliff. We often think of donating arts and crafts supplies or office supplies, but Bay Cliff also uses gardening supplies (gloves, etc.) and have the need for maintenance supplies. Please check out the Bay Cliff Wish List on its website. If you do not have access to a computer Wish Lists have been posted in the Club. Monetary donations are also appreciated; checks may be made payable to Bay Cliff and sent to the Club to the attention of Rita Bond our Lady Elks Treasurer. We will hold the checks until June when they will be given to Bay Cliff. Thank you for your generosity. Lady Elks

Newsletters:                !!PLEASE READ!!

To save postage we are looking into discontinuing sending the newsletter by mail. If you are unable to receive email or pick it up at the lodge please send us a letter stating you need it mailed to you. Also make sure we have an accurate email address on file if you want it emailed to you. Newsletter articles are due by the 20th of the month, please have anything you wish to be in the newsletters in by then.

Lady Elks:

On Wednesday, April 17th, a lively group of Lady Elks met for an evening of conversation, laughter and friendship. Carla and Roxanne, our hostesses for the evening, provided an atmosphere of Spring with table decorations of beautiful vases of bright flowers. We enjoyed a mouthwatering meal prepared by Chef Tracy of baked ham with all of the trimmings and confetti cake for dessert that was decorated in keeping with the Spring-time theme.

Sharon introduced her daughter Susan who is visiting from San Diego. Susan served in the Navy for 20 years and now has retired. This visit to her parents is a very special one as Sharon and Don are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary! Pat and Sharon turned in their Econo and Super One slips. Please remember to save not only your Super One and Econo slips but also can tabs. 365 Banks are available to pick up at the bar.

The response of donations to Bay Cliff at our meeting was superb. Pens, pencils, paper, cleaning supplies, craft supplies and more were brought in by members. As a reminder, we will be collecting donations through July, but we will be taking donations to Bay Cliff in June. The remainder will be taken to Bay Cliff in July on Elks Day.

The bulletin board in the bar area has a new look! Instead of the same plain look, Cheryl has decorated the board leaving room for monthly posters of Elks news. Thank you, Cheryl.

Our next meeting will be on May 15th with Barb and Donna as our hostesses. I encourage all members to invite their neighbor, mother, daughter or sister to join us for an evening of fun and friendship.

Thought of the month – Everything stays the same until it changes. (Author unknown)

*Until next time,
 Martee Trepanier, President.*
